MISS. TOD M. D.

OR, A DISEASE OF THE HEART.

[From a new work by Cousin Cicely, in the course of publication by Burnett & Bostwick, New Orleans.]

The days of my clerkship were ended; my examination was over; I was admitted; wrote myself "Nehemiah Hubbs, Attorney;" put up my new bright little sign and in my native village began my professional career. No, I did not either; I am mistaken. I intended to pursue the honorable practice of the noble profession to which I had dedicated my talents and learning, in the place of my birth; ents— was truer word penned than but, neve— ed proverb, a prophet hath the time honor— n country.' I believe no honor in his o— village of G— ee if I had remained in the— they would Briar till my head was white— a boy hav— thought of me as nothing be— and would have feared to trust me—b— after my sign was up, nobody called m— Mr. Hubbs; I was still "Ne," with old and young, and Ne, I would have remained in Green Briar.

Only one case claimed my attention during the three months of my patient continuance in Green Briar, after being admitted to the bar, and that was the case of an unjustly pounded pig: "feloniously abstracted, your honor from the small but secure spot in which my client had trustingly deposited him, and maliciously driven to the public enclosure called a pound, for the vile purpose do obties, of compelling my client, in his poverty and destitution, to pay the enormous fee which has been demanded of him, in order to extricate the animal from his unpleasant position, and restore him to the bosom of his family!"

By this I meant the client's family, the pig having none of his own; it was a figure of speech undoubtedly, the family not inhabiting an Irish cabin, but still it rounded off the period and sounded well to me, as I repeated over and over again my maiden speech, pacing up and down the floor of my little office. In this, my first case, I was successful so far as to rescue the impounded animal, and save my client from the payment of an unjust demand; but it brought no silver to my pocket; neither, to my surprise, did it seem to bring honor to my name. The eloquence of my speech did not form the theme, as I had fondly hoped it would, of paragraphs in the village papers, or of discussion at the corners of the streets, neither did it bring to my office the rush of clients for which each day I vainly made ready. It was plain that I should never rise to distinction in Green Briar, and so I came to the sudden determination to remove from that pleasant spot, and settle in some great city where nobody knew or had ever heard of me; where, above all, there was not a soul to call me "Ne."

There I was more successful, and soon had the opportunity of forming a very advantageous partnership; business increased; money began to come in slowly at first, but after a time more plentifully, and all things seemed prosperous in my outward circumstances. But alas! as we are so often told poetically, there is no sweet without its bitter, no rose without its thorn! and trouble came to me in the shape of disease insidious, and slow in its approaches at first, long feared and suspected, but at length betraying itself so plainly, that I would blind myself no longer to the truth.

Yes! I was without doubt a victim of disease of the heart; not metaphorically, dear reader, for never had that organ beat with a quicker pulsation at the approach of mortal woman; so far as the gentler sex was concerned, I was a perfect stoic; but there was organic disease about my heart, I could not doubt, and if ever the symptoms disclosed themselves unmistakably, they did so in my case—There was fluttering, palpitation, irregular action, and at length pain; I could not work; life had lost its zest; the fear of sudden death was ever with me; I could enjoy nothing. If I had anything to leave, or any body to leave it to, I should have made my will, for I was quite sure now that I should either drop some day lifeless in the street, or that the morning would come, when the power to raise from my bed would have left me.

I remained at my boarding house, and found no comfort in anything but my cigar, and my dread disease grew worse and worse. As yet I had consulted no physician, partly I think from the apprehension of having my fears confirmed; but as I sat by my window one day, smoking as vigorously as ever, gazing abstractedly across the street, my attention was arrested by a modest little sign upon an opposite blind,—"C. L. Tod, M. D."—While thinking whether or not it would be best to make trial of a physician's skill, a sudden tinge and flutter decided me; yes, I would send for Dr Tod, and know the worst at once!

Summoning the only male servant belonging to the establishment, I told him to step across and ask Dr Tod to come and see me as soon as possible.

The boy grinned.

"What are you laughing at?" I asked. "is not Dr. Tod a good physician?"

"Oh, yes, sir," he answered "I believe a very good physician, but she never attended nobody here."

said I to myself, 'the boy surely the blood in his veins, they al— kind thing.'

The boy soon returned, saying, 'the Dr. was'nt to home sir, but I left your name on the slate.'

In the course of the afternoon, as I lay upon the sofa, with my hand pressed upon my head, to still its irregular pulsations, there was a soft tap at the door. 'Come in,' I called out, and to my surprise, in came the neatest, brightest, most cheerful looking little woman it had ever been my lot to meet.

"You sent for me, I believe sir?" she said in a quick, brisk, pleasant way.

"I? no, madam;—you are laboring under a mistake."

"Ah! I beg your pardon," said the little woman, 'I found on my slate the name of Mr. Hubbs, number fourteen. Mrs. Gray's boarding house," with a request that I would call to see him?

"Your slate? madam;" I exclimed, my astonishment increasing every moment; 'you surely are not a——'

'Physician! yes, sir,' she interrupted quickly, 'I am a physician; Dr. Tod.'

'Extraordinary?' was all I could say. for though I had heard at a distance of the existance of such beings, this was my first introduction to a female practitioner of the Esculapian art. It was rather awkward, but since she had come, I determined to make the best of it, and acquaint the lady doctor with my case.

She felt my pulse; asked numerous questions as to my symptoms, and then in her quick, bright way, exclaimed,

'Nervous! nervous! that's all, depend upon it! excuse me, sir, but by the air of your room, I presume you are much given to smoking.'

I plead guilty.

'And how many cigars do you usually smoke in a day?'

I could not tell; I never counted; as soon as I throw away one I took another, usually.

'Hum! cigar in your mouth pretty much all the time, eh! Chew, too?'

Again a reluctant confession was wrung from me.

'I presume you sit up late, smoking all the time?'

'Yes, ma'am, smoking and reading.'

'That's it! no disease of the heart, at all, sir; nothing but tobacco, depend upon it; nothing but tobacco; it 'll make you fancy anything; it 'll drive you crazy, if you don't take care. Now, will you promise to follow my advice closely, or not? if not, I will take my leave immediately.'

I promised, submissive as a lamb.

'In the first place, then, throw away all your cigars and tobacco, and promise to buy no more.'

With a sigh given to my sole consolations, I said I would do as she directed.

Many more directions she gave me as to diet, exercise, early hours, &c.; perhaps she saw too that cheerful companionship was one thing I needed, and so she remained awhile, talking with great glee and spirit, about matters and things in general; and promising to call and see me the next morning. She left.

I have not felt so well in a great while, indeed I had not given my heart a thought since the little woman entered my room.

The next morning I found myself watching impatiently for the arrival of my little Doctor. She came bright and cheerful as the day before; what a perfect little sunbeam she was! I could not help growing better under her care, and the influence of her cheering presence, and yet I managed to contrive some ache or pain every day, as an excuse for the continuance of her visits,

At length I found that my heart, which had long been quiet and apparantly free from disease, began to flutter and palpitate again, but I observed it was only when I heard the little woman's tap at the at the door, or felt her soft fingers on my wrist. In short, as she had driven the disease out of my heart, that little woman herself had walked into it. I could no longer blind myself to the fact; and when she one day told me that I was now off the sick list, and out of her hands, I determined that she should not so easily get out of mine.

So I told her that as she had now given ease to my heart in one respect, she must not now leave me till she had done so in another, or I should be worse off than I was before. The little woman looked perplexed.

Then I stated my case, and explained my symptoms a second time, showing her the distressed state of my heart, and she alone could cure it. The former disease she had removed by an occasional visit, the latter could only be cured by her promising to come and take up her abode with me, as a 'resident physician.' She understood me now, and by the way she pressed her hand on her own little fluttering heart, one would have thought the disease was contagious; and I verily think it was. So now we determined to cure each other, and next week we are both to apply to a clergyman, who is to form between us a life partnership, as lawyer and physician.

But one thing troubles me, of which I had not thought till know; that it is necessary to have our cards engraved—Married people are usually 'Mr. and Mrs. So-and-so,' or 'Mr. Such a one and lady,' but will any one please to be so kind as to tell me how I and my little wife are to be designated. Will it be 'Mr. and Dr. Hubbs,' or 'Mr. and Mrs. Hubbs, M. D.,' or as the ladies are going ahead so fast in these days of Woman's Rights will I sink into still lesser insignificance, and shall we be 'Dr. Tod and gentleman?' or must I drop the name of Hubbs altogether, and become a Tod, too! Somebody, please tell me, how to have those cards engraved! It is a point that ought to be settled.—The ladies are running to the pulpit, and even to the bar, very many of them are already in the medical profession, and till a man has made up his mind what position he is to take when he has a minister, or a lawyer, or a doctor for his wife, let him guard well his heart, and above all, if that organ or any other is diseased, let him beware how he employs a 'lady for his leech.'

A STRONG WOMAN.—The Geneva, N. Y. Courier, notices the appearance in that village of a strong-armed, strong-backed, and, of course, strong-minded woman, in charge of a canal boat, of which she is the owner and captain.

A TURNER AND A LEXICOGRAPHER.

Two summers since, while spending a short time at Newport, I stepped into the Police court to witness an interesting trial under the Maine Law. For some reason the liquor case was postponed, and an assault and battery case brought on. The defendant in the case is well known to you, and the readers of the Spirit, and the precise nature of his misbehavior appeared from the testimony for the State to be the flogging of a German mineral water or "pop" merchant. The counts were, first, starting the Dutchman's horse and wagon, by shouting at the animal; and, secondly, that when remonstrated with, in those lively and expressive epithets that are represented by "s's," and "b's," and "——'s," he punched the head of the German afore-referred to. The testimony was very strong, very positive, especially that of a negro apprentice to the blacksmithing trade. Of course the defendant produced testimony of a very different nature. A small lad testified that the German was very abusive, and struck the first blow. A genius known as "Crepus" testified to the same facts. The lad was not cross-examined, but "Crepus" wasn't to be let off so. Mr. S——, of Tiverton, the Attorney for the State, knew a thing or two—he was as keen as a briar, and as flippant as a "flicker." The witness having given his testimony-in-chief, Mr. S—— a hem'd silence, and proceeded to address to the witness a number of questions, nearly all of which were dexterously parried by "Crepus." But the prosecuting attorney had no idea of giving it up so. There was a question of character in this case.

"Mr. C.," said the Attorney, "how long have you known the defendant?"

"Well," replied Crepus, studying very intently for half a minute, "well, from two to six years."

"What is his profession—his calling sir?"

"I never inquired. I have a habit of minding my own business, and for a lazy man that is hard work enough. You try it, some day."

"Well, Mr. C., perhaps you have no objection to state what your profession is?"

"None in the world."

'Mr. C, you will be kind enough, then, to tell us what business you follow?"

Crepus put on a look as innocent as buttermilk, and replied, "A Mechanic."

"A Mechanic!" echoed the surprised attorney—for he was sure he had Crepus on a pin-hook—"what sort of a mechanic?"

"A Turner," answered Crepus, with intense gravity.

"A Turner!" repeated the attorney, "will you please tell the court what you mean by the term Turner?"

"Certainly," replied Crepus, "a dealer in pasteboard and ivory."

"But I can't see what pasteboard and ivory have to do with the trade of a Turner."

"Why, 'Squire," said Crepus, apparently rather cut, "I thought I gave you a pretty good insight into it last court. I noticed you dropped a couple hundred scads at my turning establishment, and if that didn't initiate you, why I shall be at the same quarters at the next Providence Court, and shall be very happy to give you a few more les—"

"Hold on Mr. C.," interrupted the attorney, "your explanation is entirely satisfactory; you can stand down, sir."—(succeeded by a "mournful silence" throughout the court-room)

A definition of a very different character was given for a pet word by a printer named Johnson. Johnson had a fashion of calling out Kenabrecute, whenever he wished to express admiration or astonishment. Anything that suited him, anything that was a touch above a corn-tassel, was "Kenabrecute." One day when Johnson had been using his favorite word rather frequently than seldom, one of his follow-workmen ventured to ask him what he meant by Kenabrecute.

"Kenabrecute!" ejaculated the astonished Johnson, "Kenabrecute—Why, man, hasn't Richardson written a Dictionary?"

"Yes."

"Hasn't Webster written a Dictionary?"

"Yes."

"Havn't Anthon, and Walker, and Cobb, and a dozen more, made dictionaries?"

"Certainly, I grant all that, but what has it to do with the meaning of Kenabrecute?"

"Just, this, sir. If all those fogies can make Dictionaries, I'd like to know why the h—l I can't have a dictionary."

LOVE AND SAUSAGES.—It was one of those sweet October evenings of the South-west, when the balmy air seems to waft romance on its wings—love seemed to sigh in every gale, and I was sighing for something to love. The pine woods had taken fire in the ridges beyond the Bogue Chito. There was a long waving line of light, undulating beautifully over the hill. The giant pines stood like male-clad warriors, as the flames flashed and crackled around them. The column of smoke rose like the smoke of a volcano, while the moon glimmered chastily through the near pines, and the stars peeped out of the deep blue sky like angel's eyes. The night wind sighed in music through the pine leaves, bearing with it a delicious aroma, and I again felt the slightest possible sensation of love stealing over my heart, notwithstanding my defeats. I turned toward Miss Jane with romance bounding in each pulse, and love beaming in my eyes, and observed—

"This is a beautiful scene. See the flames, how like a serpent they wind over the hills, the inverted cone of smoke, and the 'stars which are the poetry of heaven.'"

"Yes—yes—it's quite roman-tic and picture-sque! It reminds me of what I have read of in history book, where the Emperor Ner-ro set fire to the city of Rum, and fiddled by the light."

WOULDN'T BITE.—A witty clergyman had been lecturing one evening in a country village, on the subject of temperance, and, as usual, after the lecture, the pledge was passed round for signatures.

'Pass it along that way," said the lecturer, pointing towards a gang of bloated and red nosed loafers near the door. "Pass it along—perhaps some of these gentlemen would like to join our cause."

"We don't bite at a bare hook," gruffly muttered one of the rummies.

"Well," replied the ready clergyman, "I believe there is a kind of fish called suckers, that do not bite."

---

A minister, while preparing his next Sunday's sermon, stopped occasionally to review what he had written, and as a matter of course, to erase some portions which on consideration seemed to require improvement. While doing so, he was accosted by his little son, a child, about three years of age. "Father, does God tell you what to preach?" "Certainly, my child." "Then, what makes you scratch it out?"

---

A country school master happening to be reading about the curious skin of an elephant, asked:

"Did any of you ever see an elephant's skin?"

"I have," shouted a little urchin at the foot of the class.

"Where?" he asked quite amused at the boy's earnestness."

"On the elephant!" said he with the most provoking grin.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The intense excitement created in different parts of the Union, by the introduction and passage of the bill organizing the Territories of Nebraska and Kansas, is gradually giving way to the "sober second thought" of the people, who are always found on the side of justice and right, whenever any exigency arises which demands their active interference. Disorganizers of all classes, whether called Northern Freesoilers and Abolitionists, or Southern Disunionists, may for a brief period succeed in disturbing and agitating the public mind, yet the patriotism of the great mass of American citizens invariably comes to the rescue, and the demagogue and hypocritical philanthropist are thrust back to their native obscurity.

The principles of the Nebraska bill are only the re-enactment of a right as old as the Union itself—no new privileges are conceded.

In many parts of the Eastern States, companies have been organized under the special care of Seward, Greely, Garrison & Co., for the purpose of forwarding to the new territories, emigrants in sufficient numbers, to eventually aid in erecting them into free States; while at the same time, the South is also moving in the same direction—Kansas being described as being peculiarly adapted to slave labor.—This struggle will have at least one good effect, in speedily developing the resources of one of the finest sections of the country.

A bill providing for a line of steamers from San Francisco to Shanghae, was taken up in the Senate, and passed to a third reading. With the present disinclination on the part of Congress to make any appropriations for mail steamers, it is somewhat strange that this measure should have received such flattering approval.—The late treaty with Japan, and the influence of our untiring Senator, Mr. Gwin, have doubtless contributed the most to its success thus far.

The Pacific Railroad question has been postponed until next session of Congress, when full and complete reports of the different surveying parties will be presented, and some definite action had. In the mean time, a company in Louisiana are engaged in laying a line of road from the Eastern to the Western boundary of that State, and Texas has already made provisions for continuing the line to the Rio Grande, leaving, according to the San Francisco Herald, only 500 miles over a good road, to connect it with the shores of the Pacific.

The destruction of Greytown by the U. S. sloop-of-war Cyane, Capt. Hollins, will be read by every one with interest. If such promptitude had always been shown by the U. S. Government, in demanding reparation for wrong and insult, American citizens would never have been compelled to seek the protection of British agents in foreign countries.

The last week in July will be memorable in California, for the intense heat of the weather throughout the State, the thermometer ranging from 100 to 112 deg., and in this place, reaching 118 deg. in the shade.

Late events in our own State present but little of importance or interest, beyond the war between the two wings of the Democratic party, and the general chuckling of the Whigs over their flattering prospects at the coming election.

HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY.—An attempt was made on Saturday evening last, and again on Monday evening, to get the members of this company together, but without success, both meetings having been postponed for want of a quorum. Another trial to effect an organization will be made on Monday evening the 14th inst., at the Southern Hotel, at 7 1-2 o'clock.

It is to be hoped that interest enough will be manifested in this undertaking, in which every property-holder is interested, to establish a proper system of by-laws, and place the association on an efficient footing.

Remember, Monday evening, at the Southern Hotel.

A night watch has been organized by the citizens of Sonora, to protect the town from fire. A new Hose Company has been established in the place.

THE GREYTOWN AFFAIR.

It will be recollected that some time since, a difficulty occurred at Greytown, between the Natives and Foreign residents. Minister Borland proceeded to Washington, and soon afterwards the Cyane, Capt. Hollins, was despatched for San Juan, as announced in the newspapers, "to resist the passenger tax, and protect the right of the Accessory Transit Company." Her commander did efficient service at that port some fifteen months since, when the people of San Juan contemplated the destruction of the Transit Company at Punta Arenas. The Cyane arrived on the 8th of July, and the same day a communication was sent on shore, notifying the citizens of Greytown that it was the intention of her commander to bombard the town, and that one of the Company's steamers would convey all who desired to leave, over to Punta Arenas. This arrangement was carried into effect at an early hour next morning; and at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 9th, the Cyane opened her batteries upon the village, knocking all of the principal houses to pieces. In the afternoon, a detachment of 35 marines were sent on shore, who completed the work of destruction by setting fire to and burning what remained of the settlement. An English vessel of war, the brig Express, was in the harbor at the time. The Cyane had come up alongside, and Captain Hollins notified her commander to drop astern out of the way, which was done.

One of the rumors on shore, when the passengers came across, was that the commander of the Express had sent word to Captain Hollins, that if his vessel had metal as large as that of the Cyane, he would protect the town; and that Captain Hollins replied, that "unless he brought a seventy-four, it would do him no credit."—The Express sailed shortly afterwards, to communicate with the English Admiral in those waters, it is supposed. The Cyane was still in the harbor when the last passenger left San Juan.

Another instance of the careless use of fire arms occurred on Sunday last, between Agua Frio and Guadalupe, by which a man named Royal was instantly killed. The facts, as near as we can learn, are these:

Three men named Royal, Thompson, and Moran, had been to Agua Frio to purchase their week's provisions, and returned to camp in the evening, the two former just in advance of Moran. On the arrival of the latter before entering the cabin he discharged his revolver, and was requested by Royal who was inside to discharge his also, and in handing it to Moran for that purpose one charge exploded, the ball lodging in the back of the head near the neck producing instant death. The pistol is supposed to have been cocked, and was accidentally discharged in passing it to Moran.

CHINAMAN KILLED.—A Chinaman was found murdered on Friday last, near the Chowchilla, a short distance off the trail from that place to Mariposa. On his body were found several wounds inflicted with a knife.

Another Chinaman who was traveling with him states that they were attacked by a number of Mexicans, his companion killed, and himself badly wounded in the hand, and that he escaped by hiding in the bushes. A Frenchman discovered the body, and found on it several hundred dollars in dust, and a pistol which he delivered to the authorities of this place.

It is supposed that the persons who committed the murder became alarmed at the approach of some one, and decamped before they had secured their booty.

FIRE AT BIDWELL'S BAR.—The town of Bidwell's, Butte county, was almost totally destroyed by fire on the 2d inst. There are but six buildings besides the Court House on the hill, that remain unscathed. The Butte Record office escaped. There was compatirively nothing saved, except such things as could be removed at once. All was swept away in one short hour. The loss is estimated at about $150,000.

The New York correspondent of the Times and Transcript, describing the celebration of the Fourth of July in that city, rather hits off a large class of grown children who "play soldier" in the large cities:

"The heat was so oppressive, that the different companies were several times ordered to halt on their way down town, and waiters were employed to follow them with buckets of iced punch and lemonade."

Oh, Jerusha! what "sogers." We wonder what old "Fuss and Feathers" would say to such an arrangement in Mexico?

Mr. Nathaniel Harbert, one of the oldest settlers of this County, has announced himself as a candidate for the office of Constable in this Township. In our opinion he is a gentleman of good judgment and capacity, and if elected, will make a reliable and efficient officer. Without respect to party, we are in favor of him.

Mr. Gardner of Adams & Co.'s, and Mr. Stelle of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, will please accept our thanks for Express favors this week, and the former gentlemen we would particularly thank for a late copy of the Los Angeles Star, a paper which we very seldom have an opportunity of seeing.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column, that Mr. Nathaniel Haskell offers his dwelling house for sale. It is a substantial and comfortable building, and pleasantly located for a family residence.

The Tuolumne Water Company have declared a dividend of four per cent. for the month of July.

FROM LOS ANGELES.

We extract the following items from the San Francisco Herald. The steamer Sea Bird in coming out of San Diego, saw two large vessels steering northwest, under a press of canvass, apparently in chase, the hindermost flying the Russian flag, and the one pursued, showing no colors, was supposed from her rig to be a "John Bull."

LATEST FROM LOWER CALIFORNIA.—By last accounts from Southern California there had been a skirmish between Melendrez and Chaves, the former had taken the latter prisoner, and he is kept in close confinement, awaiting the decision of Melendrez as to his disposition.

A company has been organized at Los Angeles for the purpose of manufacturing salt from a lake located about 17 miles from that place. Experiments had been made, the results of which far exceeded their anticipations. The salt is equal, if not superior to any in the market, and can be procured in sufficient quantities to supply the whole Pacific coast.

The Grape Crop this season is very abundant, and will be ready for market about the 25th inst.

The Southern Californian of the 27th ult. says:

"We are informed that the Indians are leaving Tejon. A few days ago, about fifty left—they were followed by Mr. Bishop. Rather than be taken back, they showed fight. The cause is said to be the removal of Mr. Beale.

FRUIT.—Figs, Pears, and Apricots are plenty in our city just now. They retail at 25 cents per dozen.

MURDER.—An American named Reed, said to be a teamster, who had lately arrived here from near Santa Barbara, and had been in this city a few days inquiring for employment, was brutally murdered on the confines of this city, on a path leading back of the vineyard of John Rowland, Esq., about a hundred yards from the river, on the night of the 24th ult. He had numerous stabs on his chest and neck, and his head had been pounded with a stone. A broken butcher knife and a stone, covered with blood, as also a broken bottle that had contained liquor, lay beside him. The ground around was trodden with men's feet, who were barefooted, and indicated a severe struggle on the part of the deceased. Dr. Gaylord, who lives about four hundred yards from the spot, heard screams about 10 o'clock on the night of the murder. No evidence appears to inculpate the guilty, but the presumption is that the deceased was decoyed to the place and murdered by the Indians.

Since the above was written, Mr. Brice informs us that the deceased was a temperate man, about twenty-five years of age, and was camped somewhere down on the river with another man, who has, not been seen since. On Sunday previous to the murder the deceased [illegible] on a good coat and a pair of pistols, [illegible] dragoon, single barreled, with [illegible] rods and a swivel at the end. The pistols were eight square barreled, and can be recognized by several persons. This is the fifth homicide that has occurred in our streets within the last four weeks, and there has been only one person committed to answer for the brutal and lawless acts.

RAIN.—Last Tuesday we were visited with a smart shower of rain, the thunder boomed overhead, and the lightning flashed, and the people wondered "what's in the wind," as they scampered along the streets to gain shelter, thinking no doubt that Dame Nature was playing some trick of which they had not due warning.

STANISLAUS CO.—We make the following extract from the Adamsville correspondence of the San Joaquin Republican.

At the present time, matters at this place are in rather an unsettled state, owing to the contesting of the office of County Judge. H. W. Wallis, Esq., was elected by two majority, but from the fact of there being many illegal votes polled, the election is contested by Mr. Thomas Leggett. The trial will take place on the 10th inst. before the Associate Justices of the Court of Sessions. I understand that Hon. Henry A. Crabb, of your city, is council for Wallis, and John G. Marvin, Esq., for Leggett. The people of this county are very much opposed to this contesting suit, and express themselves freely on the subject.

We have now a Court House at this place. The county officers (who by the way, are hard working men) have erected a temporary one; they commenced about 10 A. M., and the building was finished and ready for the County Clerk to take possession of by 4 P. M. Beat that, if you can. We are a fast people, and no mistake.

There is one prisoner at this place; he refuses to give bail, and as there is no county jail, he dines at the same table with the county officers; he says, if he was on bail he would be obliged to pay his board—whereas, in the present case it is paid by the county. Smart fellow, that; no doubt, if he is acquitted, he will prosecute the county for false imprisonment. He is charged with shooting horses belonging to a ranche on the San Joaquin.

CALAVERAS & AMADOR.—The people of Calaveras appear very indignant at the official recognition of the rebellious county of Amador, by the Gov. and Attorney General. They charge tha the Governor had no right to commission the officers elected by Amador, and that he has abused his power and set at naught the solemn decisions of a court of justice—and all to satisfy ambition and appease the cravings for the place of those who are now his fawning sycophants—recently, his most envenomed opponents.

TREATY FOR ANNEXING THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writes June 22d:—"The next arrival from the Pacific will probably bring us the treaty of annexation of the Sandwich Islands, a group of islands bearing in point of situation the same relation to Japan and China which the Burmuda Islands bear to this continent and the West India Islands. They form a most important naval situation to our whalers, and will in due course of time, furnish excellent depots of coal and merchandise for our traders to Japan and China."

MURDER AT SAN JOSE.—The wife of a Californian, named Huiegra, together with two small children, were murdered on Thursday. The woman was washing at the Hot Springs, near the Mission San Jose, and was unaccompanied save by children. The bodies were thrown into the springs.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mariposa still continues its onward course—improvements are rapidly being made, and on all sides are seen the evidences of the success of our miners, and consequent prosperity of all other branches of industry. Among the most prominent and substantial of these is a large house in course of construction by De Grandvoinet, to be composed of dressed stone, and perfectly fire-proof.—The lower part is to be occupied as a drug store by the Doctor—the other parts are intended for offices and family residence.

Messrs. Dimond & Co., have just completed a large store house, about one hundred yards from their store, connecting with it by means of a railway, which will prove of great advantage in their ordinary business transactions, and also in case of fire afford the means, perhaps, of saving a great amount of property.

Mariposa is destined to be "some place" yet, in spite of the predictions of croakers, that the mines are exhausted. Give us plenty of water for mining purposes, and our village, in one short year, would be of double the importance of such little camps as Stockton, and other places about which so much fuss is made.

STUMPING.—Hon. P. T. Herbert has made the following appointments, at which places he proposes to address the people, and has invited Calhoun Benham, Esq., one of the Whig nominees, to meet him at these places for a free discussion of political subjects. The invitation has been accepted:

Will be in Calaveras from the 6th to the evening of the 8th August.

Tuolumne, from the 9th to the evening of the 12th.

Sacramento, from the 13th to the 14th.

El Dorado, 15th to the evening of the 17th.

Placer, 18th to the evening of the 19th.

Nevada county, 20th to the evening of the 21st.

Marysville, 23d.

Solano and Soisun, 25th.

Napa City, evening of 26th.

Sonoma county, evening of 28th at Petaluma.

Alameda county, 30th.

Santa Clara, evening of 31st.

Contra Costa, Martinez, evening 2d September.

San Francisco, Sept. 4th.

The following extract from a speech of Dr. Gwin in the Senate, on the 1st July, to our mind, seems sufficiently plain to forever put at rest the charges which have been advanced that he is in favor of donating mineral lands to railroads:

Years ago, soon after I took my seat in this body, I advocated the exclusion of the mineral region in California from the operation of general legislation in regard to the public lands; and it is now the law of the land, and through my agency. Yet I intend every bill donating the public lands, that may apply to California, to have an express provision excluding the mineral lands from its operation, to prevent enemies from misrepresenting me to my constituents.

DECLINED.—We learn by a note from Hon. John C. Henry—which we publish in another column—that he declines running again for the Legislature. We believe it is his intention to return to his former home in Kentucky. No appointment has yet been made by the Whig County Committee to fill the vacancy on their regular ticket.

THE PIONEER.—We have received the August number of this welcome Magazine, for which the publishers, Messrs. LeCount & Strong, will accept our thanks. As usual, it contains many good things, not the least among which is a criticism on Jabez Tarbox's "Ode Symphonic" of "The Plains," by the renowned John Phœnix, in which some of the "hifalutin" operas of the fashionable world, are shown up with a masterly hand.

FILIBUSTERISM.—The N. O. Delta informs us, that Gen. John A. Quitman, J. S. Thrasher and A. L. Saunders, were ordered to prison by the U. S. District Judge, or to give bonds to commit no breach of the neutrality laws for the space of nine months. The bonds have been furnished, but were signed under protest, and redress will be sought before the highest tribunal.

MOUNTAIN SHEEP.—C. D. Gibbs Esq., in a letter to the San Joaquin Republican says:—

The Rocky Mountain sheep inhabit the Coast Range, which fact we were not aware of until we found their heads and horns near the watering places. We did not see any of them, but men who hunt there say that in some places there are a good many.

SODA WATER.—We don't know what the consequences might have been to ourselves during the late warm weather, if we had not received such a bountiful supply of "Pop," through the kindness of Messrs. Krafft, Howell & Hice. Just give them a call and try it. The "Deacon" buys it, "Nimrod" buys it—every body buys it, and don't find it bad to take either.

NEW CLOTHING STORE.—Those of our readers in want of fine summer clothing, are referred to the advertisement of Jules Robert, in another column—he has a full supply.

WHITE INDIANS.—The concluding portion of a communication which we published last week, containing an account of the White Indians, so much talked of, is unavoidably postponed until next week.

THE GRAND JURY of San Francisco county have found four indictments against Recorder Baker for neglect to pay over to the city portions of moneys due for fines collected by him.

TRIAL FOR MURDER.—We understand that the trial of John Tabor, for the murder of Mr. Mansfield, late of the Stockton Republican, is fixed for the 29th instant.

INFORMATION WANTED.—If Emperor Nicolas of Russia, will call on Sir Charles Napier, in the Baltic Sea, he will learn something to his advantage.

THE ISRAELITES.—The National Intelligencer says that a statement is going the rounds of the press to the effect that there are about 17,000 Israelites in the United States, and among them all there not one engaged in agriculture. This statement is incorrect. One of the largest planters in Kentucky, Mr. Benjamin Grate, an old personal friend of the late Henry Clay, is an Israelite; while in South Carolina, Georgia, and other States, there are many of that ancient faith extensively engaged in agriculture. The Hon. Mr. Benjamin of Louisiana is also extensively engaged in sugar-planting, and has written a standard essay upon the culture and chemistry of that staple, published in DeBow's Review. The Intelligencer does not say, however, that it knows of any Hebrew who tills the soil with his own hands, which we take to be the point of the controverted statement.

MORE EMIGRANTS.—Several companies of overland emigrants, the Nevada Journal says, have arrived there during the past week. They report but little difficulty on the passage. The Indians have given them but little or no trouble; though during the last hundred and fifty miles they were a good deal annoyed by cattle stealers, who come out there for that purpose. Trading posts to any amount, and plenty of provisions are found along the trail for some two hundred miles back.—They also report that the emigration this season will be larger than any previous one.

GAMBLING IN NEVADA.—Within the last few days, says the Journal, one of the principal gambling houses has been finally closed, and is now being re-modeled and turned into a livery stable. Much to the gratification of the lovers of good order, the business of gambling has been gradually but steadily decreasing among us for the past year. It is now but little practiced, there being but two or three houses devoted to that business in the town, and notwithstanding they enjoy a monopoly, their business is rather decreased than otherwise, while others have been closed.

The San Francisco Daily Herald says: From private sources we learn that the worm has already made its appearance among the potatoes in Santa Cruz, and fears are entertained that a large portion of the crop will be cut off. In the neighborhood of Tomales and Punta de los Reyes, not more than half a crop is anticipated—the potatoes, for some inexplicable reason, have not come up well.

EXTRAORDINARY CHALLENGE.—Last evening a written statement, signed by J. P. Blaxstone, was posted on the bulletin of Barry, Patten & Cowles, corner of Clay and Montgomery streets, stating that he, Blaxstone, had made a bet of $6000 that he could ride from Sacramento City to Independence, Missouri, in eleven days!—and that if any person wished to stake any further sums against the undertaking they could be accommodated by applying at that place. Mr. Blaxstone is now in the city, and will be found at the above named saloon, ready to take the bets that may be offered. He designates the 12th inst., as the time for starting, and is to have relays of horses.—Com. Advertiser.

FATALITY.—As an example of the decimation of the Indian population of our country, we need but refer to the Hock Farm digger tribe, which consisted of over five hundred souls, a few years since—so we are informed by Gen. J. A. Sutter. The same gentleman also says, that of that number but fifteen are now living. The decrease has been far more rapid since the settlement of the State by emigrants from the Eastern countries.—Sac. Union.

In spite of the vast amount of land donated to the several States, for railroad and other purposes, the receipts from public lands during the fiscal year just ended, reached the unprecedentedly large sum of $7,700,000. The debt of the U. States has been reduced to $42,187,000. This, we could easily pay off in nine months with the surplus now on hand, and what may be expected the current year, and stand before the world a great and powerful nation, free from debt, the most lightly taxed on earth.—N. Y. Herald.

WORSE THAN SLAVERY.—A man, a free citizen of Massachusetts, and not even a slave under the institutions of the Southern States, is now confined in Salem jail, for no crime and no allegation of crime: and it requires no United States soldiers or local police to protect him in his imprisonment, because there is no such sympathy for the man and no such abhorrence of the sort of oppression which he endures as to create any danger of a rescue. He is imprisoned only for the misfortune of being unable to pay his debts. Boston Traveller.

HEAVY WHEAT FIELD.—The Sacramento Union states that the product of ten acres of land gathered from a field of 600 acres on Messrs. Hutchinson and Green's ranch, on Putah Creek, Yolo Co., was found to weigh 40,000 pounds, which at 60 pounds to the bushel, gives sixty-six and two-thirds bushels to the acre. This is believed to exceed all precedent.

"OUR HOUSE" in Upper Agua Frio, has been re-fitted and re-opened for the accommodation of the public, under the management of William Ketton & Co., as will be seen by reference to advertisement. The lady of Mr. J. M. Ketton, the former proprietor, will continue in charge of the household affairs.

MINING VILLAGES IN TUOLUMNE.—Jamestown is flourishing. Campo Seco is nearly deserted for the want of water. Algerine Camp is in the same category. Montezuma is thriving; so is Chinese Camp.

The Los Angeles Star has hoisted the banner of Denver and Herbert at the head of its columns.

There is to be a grand ball at Tuolumne City on Thursday, the 31st inst.

The mountains in the vicinity of Yreka have been on fire for several weeks past.

A new Baptist church in Nevada is nearly finished.

COURT OF SESSIONS.

HON. J. M. BOUDURANT, presiding Justices, Washburn and [illegible]

The Court of Sessions has [illegible] pied thus far during the week sing of the following criminal will probably remain in session mainder of the week for the tion of county matters:

People vs. Lewis Wiley and Philbert—indicted for grand larceny. [illegible] pris ners have escaped some time and of course, no action taken by Court.

People vs. Jno. Kennedy—indicted, assault with intent to kill; also escaped.

People vs. Robt. Carter—assault with intent to commit serious bodily injury; guilty of assault and battery, and fined $62 50 and costs.

People vs. Jose Maria Gonzales and Celilo Franco—grand larceny, (stealing cattle;) found guilty, and sentenced to three years in State Prison.

KNOW NOTHINGS.—The Sacramento Union gives the following as the creed of the Know Nothings, in that city—just the reverse of the Do-Nothings of this place:

1st.—Never to interfere with the rights of a legal voter at the polls.

2d.—Never to vote for an Irishman, German, Frenchman, Russian, Spaniard Hungarian, Pole, Greek, Hottentot, or any other foreigner, unless he be properly known to you as a naturalized citizen.

3d.—Never to indulge in shoulder striking on election days, except in self-defence.

4th.—Never to vote fraudulently.

5th.—Never to impart intelligence to any person or persons which you—don't know.

MEETING OF INDEPENDENTS.—We perceive by hand-bills posted in different places, that a Mass Convention of all persons in favor of an Independent County Ticket, is called to meet at Agua Frio to-morrow.—"Go in lemons."

Several business houses of Nevada have discontinued trading on Sunday.

A CARD.

Messrs. Editors:—I have learned since my arrival in Mariposa, that my name has been placed upon the Whig Ticket as a Candidate for a seat in the next Legislature. Permit me, through your columns, to acknowledge the obligation, but most respectfully, to decline.

Yours &c., JOHN C. HENRY.

August 7th, 1854.

E. BURKE, Esq.—

Sir:—Being informed that the Hon. John C. Henry has declined being a candidate for re election, many of your friends desire that you will consent to become a candidate at the ensuing election to represent this County in the next Assembly. MANY FRIENDS.

Mariposa, 10th August, 1854.

TO THE PEOPLE OF MARIPOSA COUNTY—

Having been requested thereto by many friends, I take this opportunity to announce myself as a Candidate at the coming election, for the Assembly of California.

Mariposa, August 10, 1854. E. BURKE.

A CARD.

Messrs. Editors: Last week you published a card from Mr. T. C. Flournoy, democratic candidate for the House, accusing me of charging him and Maj. McNeill with being in favor of the removal of the county seat. This I most positively contradict, and the friend who furnished him with the information, had he listened attentively, would have told him that I only asked this question—"If the removal of the county seat came up before the people this fall, and the Southern portion of the county be in favor of its removal to Quartzburg, was it not reasonable to suppose, that Maj. McNeill and Mr. Flournoy would favor said removal, they being residents of that place?" Mr. Flournoy has answered the question.

So far as I am individually concerned, I do not care one cent whether it is ever moved—or kept moving all the time; I don't think I would bother myself following it.

PROCLAMATION!

Ye Miners—all who love to roam,
So far away from friends and home,
Just please to stop a while and see
What glorious news you'll get from me.

Those friends at home, why, "bless your eyes!"
You now can take them by surprise,
And show your bearded, whiskered faces,
And all your "Claim-s" and mining places.
Your "Tom" and "Dick" and "Harry," and "tailings" too;
And even the water running through.
All this, and more, sirs, you are able
To place at home upon your table,
Thousands of miles far, far away
From this same California!
And how? Quite easy—just walk round
Towards the upper end of town,
At Mariposa, and there's the place
To get a Picture of your face.
Walk into Plecker's Saloon—
From morn 'till late in afternoon—
You'll find all things prepared for action,
And warranted to give satisfaction.
Daguerreotypes—all sorts and kinds—
To suit all fancies and ill minds;
Large and small, and splendid cases,
Suitable for "Claims" or "Faces;"
Or, if you choose, a handsome Locket,
Exactly fit for a sweetheart's pocket.
All this, and more than I can mention,
You'll find there to attract attention.
Come all, no matter what your trade is,
Come right along and bring the ladies;
And whether they are fair or no,
Daguerreotype will quickly show.)
Pictures in any kind of weather,
Singly, or two or more together.
Now if you want a "view" or "claim,"
Walk in and "register your name;"
Or come my specimens to see—
No charge for that—admittance free!
Saloon in readiness, boys, recollect,
I may be off ere you expect.
Pictures good, and prices low,
Now's you chance, before I go,
Recollect the name—and call in soon—

OSA CHRONICLE.

REUBEN AND PHEBE.

A PATHETIC BALLAD.

In Manchester a maiden dwelt;
Her name was Phebe Brown,
Her cheeks were red, her hair was black,
And she was considered by good judges to be by all odds the best looking girl in town.

Her age was nearly seventeen;
Her eyes were sparkling bright;
A very lovely girl was she—
And for about a year and a half there had been a young man paying attention to her, by the name of Reuben Wright.

Now Reuben was a nice young man,
As any in the town;
And Phebe loved him very dear;
But on account of being obliged to work for a living, he never could make himself agreeable to old Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

Her parents were resolved
Another she should wed—
A rich old miser in the place;
And old Brown frequently declared that rather than have his daughter marry Reuben Wright, he'd sooner knock him in the head.

But Phebe's heart was brave and strong;
She feared not parents' frowns;
And as for Reuben Wright so bold,
I've heard him say more than fifty times that (with the exception of Phebe,) he didn't care two skips of a flea for the whole race of Browns.

So Phebe Brown and Reuben Wright
Determined they would marry;
Three weeks ago last Tuesday night,
They started for old Parson Webster's, determined to be united in the holy bonds of matrimony, though it was tremendous dark and rained like the Old Harry.

But Captain Brown was wide awake;
He loaded up his gun,
And then pursued the loving pair;
He overtook 'em when they got about half way to the Parson's and then Reuben and Phebe started off upon the run.

Old Brown then took a deadly aim
Towards young Reuben's head;
But oh, it was a bleeding shame,
He made a mistake, and shot his only daughter,
And had the unspeakable anguish of seeing her drop right down stone dead.

Then anguish filled young Reuben's heart,
And vengeance crazed his brain;
He drew an awful jack-knife out,
And plunged it into old Brown about fifty or sixty times, so that it is very doubtful about his ever coming to again.

The briny tears from Reuben's eyes,
In torrents poured down;
He yielded up the ghost and died;
And this melancholy and heart-rending matter terminates the history of Reuben and Phebe, and like wise of old Captain Brown.

ANECDOTE OF PETER CARTWRIGHT.—While he was preaching, years ago, Gen Jackson entered the church, when a pastor seated in the pulpit gave his "Brother Cartwright" a nudge, and whispered that the old hero had just come in—as much as to advise, "now be particular in what you say." But Peter, to the astonishment of every one, louder than ever exclaimed—"Who cares for Gen. Jackson? He'll go to hell as soon as any body, if he doesn't repent."

When the sermon—a home made one—was ended, a friend asked the General what he thought of that rough old fellow, and received for answer, "Sir, give me twenty thousand of such men, and I'll whip the world, including the devil!"

"Seventy-five cents per gal!" exclaimed Mrs. Partington, on looking over the price current. "Why, bless me, what is the world coming to, when the gals are valued at seventy-five cents?" The old lady pulled off her spectacles, threw down her paper, and went into a brown study on the want of proper appreciation of the true value of the feminine gender.

REMOVAL.
Dr. J. C. Young,
HAS removed his office from 226 1-2 Dupont street to the corner of Montgomery and California streets, opposite the Banking House of Page, Bacon & Co., where he will be happy to consult with his former patrons, and treat scientifically and with discretion, all those who may require the services of a physician. The success of Dr. Young since his advent in this State, has been without a parallel, and he hopes by continued and untiring application to his profession, to remove from the public mind that lack of confidence which has so unhappily existed in regard to the medical profession in the State of California.
P. S.—All letters enclosing $10 will receive immediate attention. Direct box 705, Post Office, San Francisco.
N. B.—All papers in the State will please insert as special notice the above, for one month, and send bill to J. C. Young, M. D. dec4-tf

DR. J. C. YOUNG,
OF SAN FRANCISCO.
READ AND REFLECT.
"If there is a hereafter,
(And that there is, conscience uninfluenced,
And suffered to speak out, tells every man,)
Then it is an awful thing to die.
More horrid yet to die by one's own hand,
Self-murder—name it not!
Shall Nature, swerving from her earliest dictate,
Self preservation, fall by its own act?
Forbid it, Heaven."
THE indulgence in secret practices is the most certain, though not always the most immediate and direct avenue to destruction. Physicians of all ages have been most unanimously of opinion that the loss of one ounce of the seminal secretions, by unnatural aid or emissions, weakens the system more than the abstraction of forty ounces of blood. One of the FIRST writers on medical jurisprudence states that three fourths of the insane owe their malady to such abuse.
How important, then, it is—for every one having the least cause to suspect any trouble in that way, should attend to it immediately, even one single occurrence is sufficient to cause doubt, and much more so if should be s... the soul-killing habit, the person had ever indulged in ... The treatment published by the justly celebrated Dr. J. C. Young, in case of seminal weakness, impotency, sterility, nervous debility, and paralysis, (the last is the most dangerous, and when it once occurs, is incurable,) is surpassed by any physician in the country. It is the same as that followed by him for years, under the guidance of the world-renowned Record of Paris, and Acton of London. Dr. Young's office is corner of Montgomery and California streets, opposite Page, Bacon & Co., San Francisco, California, where he can be consulted upon that and all other private diseases, with the utmost confidence and secrecy. Dr. Young will warrant a perfect and permanent cure or make no charge.
N. B.—Letters enclosing $10 will receive prompt attention. The doctor's time being so much taken up that he cannot attend to letters unless paid for it.
P. S.—Apartments privately arranged.

A CARD.
FROM Dr. J. C. Young's Private Medical Office.—To the Afflicted.—In this age of progress, when science is developing itself in such a manner as to appear almost miraculous, everything in common place is looked upon as not worth notice. In view of this fact, DR. YOUNG, corner of Montgomery and California streets, San Francisco, California, has concluded to leave the beaten track hitherto pursued by most scientific physicians, (that of waiting for the public to find you out alone,) and publish to the world, as much as may be, his knowledge of the healing art, to let those who are in need of assistance know where they can find relief, without fear of being imposed upon.
In continuation of this object, Dr. Young would say that for the past ten years he has pursued the practice of medicine in one of the largest cities of the United States, with the highest success, and that his standing as a physician is without reproach, having at one time been lecturer at the University of Pennsylvania on venerial diseases, &c.
Upon all these considerations, Dr. Young has confidence in introducing himself to the public, knowing that they will sustain well earned merit.
The following are a few of the many testimonials, which have appeared in the public journals the last few years:
[From the Boston Medical Journal.]
Although we are opposed to the system of advertising, for good and sufficient reasons, still we deem it but justice to say that Dr. Young is one of the most industrious and indefatigable votaries of the medical science in the United States.
[From Professor Jackson.]
The subscriber is personally acquainted with Dr. Young, and has seen much of his practice, and can bear testimony to his merits as a practitioner.
[From the New York Herald.]
The eminence of this distinguished gentleman in his profession, and the very extended opportunities possessed by him for the observation of venereal disease, makes his services invaluable to those afflicted with the above complaints.

MEDICAL ADVICE.
DR. J. C. Young, who has become so celebrated for the thousands of cures which he has performed on old, chronic, mercurial, syphilitic, and all private diseases, without mercury, is consulted daily at his office, corner of Montgomery and California streets, from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. A cure guaranteed or no pay.
Dr. J. C. Young has probably had more practice in venerea. diseases than any other physician in California. He cures all the most aggravated cases of this disease, and mild ones he removes in from two to five days. The doctor has for many years, been known as the most eminent and successful physician in the United States, and what is more important to the patient, he always effects a speedy and permanent cure.
Travelers, seamen, miners and others, who wish to be cured without mercury, hindrance from business, or exposure to friends, should apply to him as soon as possible, and a perfect cure will be guaranteed in all curable cases. Recollect the name and number, Dr. J. C. Young, corner of Montgomery and California streets.
Office open from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY.
OR SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Young addresses the o who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences in that secret and solitary habit which ruins the body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society. The following are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: weakness of the back and limbs, in pain the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervousness, irritability, derangement of the digestive functions, general debility, symptoms of consumption, &c.
Mentally the fearful effects on the mind are more to be dreaded. Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.
All persons who are afflicted with any of the above symptoms should not fail to call on Dr. Young, and be at once restored to perfect health. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately, and save yourself from the dreadful and awful consequences of this terrible malady.

WEAKNESS OF THE ORGANS

For sale as above, the celebrated French Lunar Pills, these pills are now acknowledged by the medical fraternity to be the only safe, mild and efficacious remedy to be depended upon in long standing cases of suppression, irregularity, or stopping of the functions of nature, the neglect of which is the source of such deplorable effects on the female frame.
N. B.—These pills are highly celebrated as a preventive.
Price $5 per box. DR. J. C. YOUNG,

PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE.
HUNDREDS of those who have contracted disease are disappointed of a cure by not calling on DR. YOUNG at first. He will forfeit any sum if he fails to cure any case that may come under his care, no matter how long standing and afflicting, such as ulcers, tumors, moles, bunches, pimples on the face and body, pains in the bones and joints, wakefulness, trembling, copper-colored sores, wasting of the bones, emaciation, loss of appetite, strength and flesh, sores in the nose and ears, loss of hair, weak eyes, itching humors, &c., &c. Many persons, after being relieved of all external appearances of private disease, suppose themselves cured, but after a few months find they are troubled with various symptoms which they never had before, and which they find it impossible to relieve.
To all who are afflicted in this way, Dr. Young would particularly recommend a trial of his skill. The symptoms with which you are troubled are caused by taints in the blood, which sooner or later will destroy your health and happiness. No person who has ever had an attack of any private complaint should fail to consult Dr. Young, and take a few bottles of his invaluable purifying medicine as they can rest assured that their blood is in a perfectly pure and healthy condition and that every trace of disease is removed from the system.
Recent cases cured in from two to five days, without change of diet or hindrance from business, or no charge.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.
DR. J. C. YOUNG, who is celebrated for curing all private complaints of both sexes, has discovered a remedy for the cure of old, long standing cases of gonorrhœa and gleets, which he has tried in more than one hundred cases, successfully, many of which he baffled the skill of eminent physicians for years, and not one single case has it failed, nor can it ever fail, the nature of the remedy is such that it strikes at the root of the complaint, and eradicates it completely in few days. New cases cured in an incredible space of time, without change of diet or hindrance from business.
